

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 19, 2017

CONTACT:

Kelly Sharpe
Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP
ksharpe@taftlaw.com
317-713-3441

Former Director of Indiana State Department of Health's Long-Term Care Division Joins Taft

Indianapolis, Ind. (April 19, 2017) – Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP is pleased to announce that Kim Rhoades has joined the firm's Indianapolis office as of counsel in the Health & Life Sciences group. Prior to joining Taft, Rhoades served as the director of the Indiana State Department of Health's Long-Term Care Division, where she was responsible for administering laws governing the day-to-day operations of nursing facilities and residential care facilities, as well as monitoring compliance with Life Safety Code and physical plant requirements.

Rhoades will focus her practice primarily on regulatory and corporate matters, with particular emphasis on long-term health services. She earned her J.D. from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law and her B.A. from DePauw University.

About Taft

At Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP, delivering outstanding legal performance to help clients succeed is what drives and motivates our attorneys every day. Taft has offices in Ann Arbor, Mich.; Chicago, Ill.; Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Dayton, Ohio; Indianapolis, Ind.; Covington, Ky.; and Phoenix, Ariz. More than 400 attorneys practice across a wide range of industries, in virtually every area of law, including Business and Finance; Litigation; Labor and Employment; Intellectual Property; Business Restructuring, Bankruptcy and Creditor Rights; Environmental; Health and Life Sciences; Private Client Services; Real Estate; and Tax. With a proven track record of experience since 1885, the firm offers breadth and depth of legal expertise coupled with a trusted business perspective to help our clients, big and small, regionally, nationally and internationally, reach their goals. For more information, please visit www.taftlaw.com.